EXPERIENCE

Teaching Practicals | 2024

I worked in the foundation phase, teaching and supporting young learners in their early years of education. In this role, I developed and implemented engaging lesson plans, fostered a nurturing classroom environment, and encouraged students to explore and learn through play-based activities. By building strong relationships with students and their families, I helped create a foundation for lifelong learning and growth.

Mathematical literacy | 2023

As a Mathematical Literacy tutor for Grade 12 students in 2023, I gained valuable experience in breaking down complex mathematical concepts into easily understandable lessons. Through one-on-one support and group sessions, I helped students develop problem-solving skills and build confidence in their mathematical abilities. This experience not only deepened my own understanding of mathematical literacy but also taught me the importance of patience, clear communication, and adaptability in teaching.
